4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent Police would submit that petitioners compelled the minor son of the defacto complainant to consume ganja and also threatened him to bring money and hence, he strongly objected to grant bail to the petitioners.

5.Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6.On perusal of FIR, it is noticed that the petitioners herein compelled the defacto complainant's son to consume poison and not to go to the School. They also threatened him to bring Rs.500/- from his house or otherwise, they would inform the police that he is selling ganja. Due to which, the defacto complainant's son attempted to commit suicide by hanging himself. Fortunately, he was rescued. The allegations levelled as against the petitioners are serious in nature. Hence, this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioners. Accordingly, this criminal original petition is dismissed.
