2.The case of the prosecution is that due wordy quarrel, the petitioner herein abused the defacto complainant in filthy language, assaulted him and also threatened with dire consequences. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would contend that the petitioner is innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the petitioner is in custody from 18.09.2023, hence he seeks bail.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the petitioner herein abused the defacto complainant in filthy language, assaulted him and also threatened with dire consequences, hence he objected to grant bail to the petitioner. However he fairly concedes that the injured has been discharged from the hospital

5.Considering the facts and circumstances and also considering the period of incarceration and also taking into consideration the fact that the injured has been
