3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would contend that the petitioner is innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the petitioner is in custody from 10.10.2023 and hence, he seeks bail.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent Police would submit that petitioner was in illegal possession of banned tobacco products and hence, he strongly objected to grant bail to the petitioner. However he fairly concedes that no previous case is pending against the petitioner.

6.Considering the nature of allegations made against the petitioner and also considering the fact that no previous case is pending against the petitioner and also taking into consideration of the principle stated by the Honourable Supreme Court in Sanjay Chandra and others vs. CBI reported in (2012)1 SCC 40, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.
