seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that on 05.02.2022, the accused persons abducted and assaulted the defacto complainant and also forcibly obtained signatures on blank cheques and other documents. Hence the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent persons and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail.

4.The learned counsel appearing for the intervenor would submit that the defacto complainant was working as Supervisor in the accused's hotel at Qatar. When the defacto complainant asked leave to come to India, the same was refused and the Manager threatened him with dire consequences. Therefore, the defacto complainant resigned his job and left Qatar without informing the Hotel Management. On 05.02.2022, some unknown persons kidnapped the defacto complainant to a hotel wherein, all the accused were present. They have threatened the defacto complainant and also attacked him. They also accused him for

Therefore, the defacto complainant strongly opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent police would submit that the complaint was received from the learned Judicial Magistrate under Section 156(3) Cr.P.C. The investigation reveals that there is no kidnap taken place. He would further submit that the investigation is almost completed.

6.On perusal of records, it is noticed that there is no kidnap taken place as alleged by the defacto complainant and the investigation is also almost completed.

7.Taking into consideration the principles stated by the Honourable Supreme Court in Gurubaksh Singh Sibbia Etc., vs. State of Punjab reported in 1980 AIR 1632 and Lal Kamendra Pratap Singh vs. State of Uttar Pradesh and others reported in (2009)4 SCC 437 and Joginder Kumar vs. State of U.P. and others reported in (1994) 4 SCC 260 and taking into consideration the origin of crime, it is seen that the offence alleged as against the petitioner is not a case of heinous crime. Further the petitioner is having permanent residence at Tiruchirappalli District. Hence the principles stated in Hussainara Khatoon & Ors vs. Home Secretary, State Of Bihar reported in AIR 1979 SC 1360 is taken into consideration. In that case, the Hon'ble Supreme Court has cautioned that pre-trial detention is not to be encouraged nor is to be encourageable pre-trial release on sureties; that if the Court is satisfied after taking into consideration that the accused has his roots in the community and is not likely to abscond, he can safely be released on his personal bond.

8. In view of the above, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy is made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Trichirappalli on condition that the petitioner shall execute a own bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that :

[a] the petitioner shall affix his photograph and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of his Aadhar Card or Bank Pass Book to ensure their identity.

[b] the petitioner shall report before the trial Court on summons.

[c] the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

[f] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 229A IPC.
