ORDER

Heard the learned Counsel on either side.

2. The petitioner seeks return of the petition mentioned passport which has been impounded. The passport was impounded because the petitioner had travelled to Yeman. A similar issue arose in W.P(MD)No.22808 of 2022 (Valan Kanakurajendran Vs. The Secretary to Government, Ministry of External Affairs, New Delhi), vide order dated 10.01.2023 the writ petition was disposed of in the following terms:

"4. I am conscious that this Court will not be justified in issuing any positive or definitive direction to the respondents. But this Court calls upon the respondents to bear in mind the special facts and circumstances of the case. The petitioner's livelihood is at stake. His wife and children are at Abu Dhabi. The petitioner is stranded in India. If the passport is not returned to the petitioner, he cannot return to Abu Dhabi for employment purposes and his family may be compelled to come down to India. If the respondents are satisfied that the petitioner had genuinely erred, they can take
