This Criminal Original Petition is filed seeking for transfer of investigation in Crime No.319 of 2022 on the file of the second respondent to the third respondent.

2. It is submitted by the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner that there are disputes between the petitioner and his brothers in respect of immovable property and a suit was filed against the petitioner and the same was decreed in favour of the petitioner and two days thereafter, the petitioner's son was mysteriously died and the Police have registered a case in Crime No.319 of 2022 for the offence punishable under Section 304(A) IPC. It is submitted that even though a case has been registered under Section 304(A) IPC, there are no traces of the accident which resulted in the death of the petitioner's son and when the petitioner has given many clues to show that it was not an accident but a homicide, the Police are not taking any action and therefore, he sought for transfer of investigation.

3. The learned Government Advocate (criminal side) appearing for the official respondents submits that even after giving instructions to the concerned Police, there is no substantial progress in the investigation.

Crl.O.P.(MD)No.21908 of 2022

4. In view of the above, the Deputy Superintendent of Police, Pudukkottai District, is directed to takeover the investigation of this case which will be monitored by the Superintendent of Police, Pudukkottai District and complete the investigation as expeditiously as possible. Copy of this order be sent to the Inspector General of Police, Madurai, Superintendent of Police, Pudukkottai District and Deputy Superintendent of Police, Pudukkottai District, for necessary action.

5. With the above direction, the Criminal Original Petition is disposed of.
