2.The case of the prosecution is that there was a wordy quarrel between the defacto complainant and his wife and at that time, one of the defacto complainant's neighbour viz., Tamilan @ Elanthamizhan interfered in the family dispute and due to that motive on 16.10.2023, when the defacto complainant went to the Annamalai furniture shop to collect the money, the said Tamilan @ Elanthamizhan has attacked him with Aruval and caused injuries. Hence, the case.

Further, the petitioner is having permanent resident at Theni District and the origin of the crime is family dispute. In this circumstances, the principles stated in Hussainara Khatoon & Ors vs. Home Secretary, State Of Bihar reported in AIR 1979 SC 1360 is taken into consideration. In that case, the Hon'ble Supreme Court has cautioned that pre-trial detention is not be encouraged nor is to be encourageable pre-trial release on sureties; that if the Court is satisfied after taking into consideration that the accused has his roots in the community and is not likely to abscond, he can safely be released on his personal bond.

7. In view of the above, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Bodinayakkanur on condition that the petitioner shall execute own bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further
