ORDER

(Order of the Court was made by M.S.RAMESH, J.)

The petitioner is the father of the detenu viz., Suresh @ Soosai aged about 24 years, S/o.Durairaj. The detenu has been detained by the second respondent by his order in MHS Confdl. No.197/2022 dated 28.10.2022 holding him to be a "Goonda", as contemplated under Section 2(f) of Tamil Nadu Act 14 of 1982. The said order is under challenge in this Habeas Corpus Petition.

2. We have heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondents. We have also perused the records produced by the Detaining Authority.

HCP(MD)No.2060 of 2022

3. Though several grounds have been raised in the Habeas Corpus Petition, the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would mainly focus his argument on the ground that the detaining authority after being aware of the fact that there was no bail application filed by the detenu came to the conclusion that there is a real possibility of the detenu coming out on bail by relying upon the order passed in CrI.M.P.No.35/2021. The learned counsel therefore submitted that the similar case that was relied upon by the detaining authority was not a similar one and on that score, the detention order is liable to be interfered with.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor strongly opposed the Habeas Corpus Petition by filing his counter.

5. On carefully going through the detention order, the detaining authority was aware of the fact that no bail application was filed by the detenu. However, the detaining authority took into consideration the order passed in CrI.M.P.No.35/2021 dtd 19.01.2021 and came to the conclusion that there is a likelihood of the detenu coming out on bail. Perusal of the order shows that the accused therein had been granted the relief of bail on the ground that the property has been recovered. However, in the present case, there is there is no reference with regard to any property and hence, the bail order that was relied upon by the detaining authority cannot be considered to be a similar one.

6. In view of the above, the detention order suffers from non application of mind and the same is liable to be interfered with by this Court. The impugned detention order is, therefore, liable to be quashed.

7. In the result, the Habeas Corpus Petition is allowed and the order of detention in MHS Confdl. No.197/2022 dated 28.10.2022 passed by the second respondent is set aside. The detenu, viz., Suresh @ Soosai S/o.Durairaj, aged about 24 years, is directed to be released forthwith unless his detention is required in connection with any other case.
