CRL OP(MD)No.19327 of 2023

IPC r/w Section 4 of the Tamil Nadu Prohibition of Harassment of Women Act, 2002, in Crime No.410 of 2023, on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to property dispute between the petitioners and the defacto complainant, the petitioners assaulted the defacto complainant, abused her by using filthy language and also threatened her with dire consequence. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are innocent person and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that injured was discharged from the hospital and he prays for granting anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent police would submit that the injured was discharged from the hospital. He further contended that the investigation of the case is pending and hence, strongly objected to granted bail to the petitioners.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and that the injured was discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners subject to the following conditions:

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt
