3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and a false case has been foisted against him. He would further submit that the investigation has been completed and final report filed before the concerned Court, hence he seeks bail.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that due to civil dispute the petitioner herein along with other accused abused the defacto complainant and also threatened with dire consequences and also demolished the compound wall, hence he objected to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. However he fairly concedes that investigation has been completed and final report filed before the concerned Court.
