2. The case of the prosecution is that due to wordy quarrel the petitioner herein along with other accused abused the defacto complainant, assaulted him and also threatened with dire consequences, hence the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and a false case has been foisted against him. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, hence he seeks bail.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the the petitioner herein along with other accused abused the defacto complainant, assaulted him and also threatened with dire consequences, hence he objected to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. However he fairly concedes that injured has been discharged from the hospital and no previous case is pending against the petitioner and it is a case and case in counter.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that no previous case is pending against the petitioner and the injured has
