The petitioner/ A2, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under section 379 I.P.C., and section 21(1) of Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Act, 1957 in Crime No.694 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused have illegally transported one unit of river sand . Hence, a case has been registered.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and a false case has been foisted against him, hence he seeks bail.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the petitioner along with other accused have illegally transported one unit of river sand, hence he objected to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. However he fairly concedes that no previous case is pending against the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and also the
