police for the offences punishable under Sections 6(4) of TNSC (RDCS) Order, 1982 r/w. Section 7(1)(a)(ii) of EC Act, in Crime No.174 of 2023, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that when the respondent police was on routine check up, the petitioner herein and other accused have illegally transported 800 kgs of PDS rice worth about Rs.45,400/- by using Omni Van. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and his name has been falsely implicated in this case and he prays for granting anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent police would submit that the petitioner herein is arrayed as A1 and the A2 was absconding and the A2 is absconding. . He would further submit that the petitioner is not having any previous case and the property recovered is worth about Rs.45,400/-. He further contended that the investigation of the case is pending and hence, he strongly objected to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and that the property has been recovered, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the
