2. The case of the prosecution is that on receiving secret information, the respondent police conducted a vehicle check up and at that time, the petitioner herein and other accused have illegally found in possession of 12 kgs of Tobacco Products worth about Rs.31,500/-. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and his name has been falsely implicated in this case and he prays for granting anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent police would submit that the property recovered is worth about Rs.31,500/- and the petitioner herein is not having any previous case. He would further submit that investigation of the case is pending and hence, he strongly objected to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and that the property has been recovered and that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:
