The writ petitioner filed this Writ Petition, to direct the respondents herein not to interfere with day-to-day affairs of the petitioner club namely NILA RECREATION CLUB including playing of 13 cards games like Rummy without stakes.

2.The facts in brief:

The petitioner running a Club in the name and style of 'Hariharan Recreation Club', with an objective to promote indoor and outdoor games among the members of the club and public. The above said club was registered under the provisions of Tamil Nadu Societies Registration Act, 1975 and other formalities for the above said building is also applied. Earlier the Club was opened in Thethupatti. Now it was shifted to the present address. The petitioner has submitted application seeking change of address. In the meantime, the second respondent and his men visited the Club and threatening its members, causing disturbances and harassing the members and guests on the pretext that cards should not be played. There is no gambling or betting involved in the indoor games. The petitioner assured that they do not do anything which are illegal and prohibited under law. Therefore, the petitioner has come forward with 3.Heard both sides.

4.The said club has been registered only under the Provisions of Tamil Nadu Societies and Registration Act, 1975. But, so far licence from the competent authority, as per the provisions of Tamil Nadu Places of Public Resort Act, 1988, as mended periodically, proper licence is not obtained from the competent authority so far. Only a representation has been made to the respondents seeking permission to open the above said Club in the new place.

5.Section 4 of the Act reads as under.

“4.When any person desires to obtain a licence to use any enclosed place or building for public resort or entertainment, or to construct any enclosure or building for such purpose, he shall send an application to the authority named in Section 5, setting forth the name of the owner of the place or building, its situation, size and description, the material of which the enclosure or building is made or proposed to be made,

whether it is or is proposed to be permanent or temporary, and the purpose for which, it is proposed to be used.”

6.As per the above said section proper licence must be obtained by the petitioner. Section 5 speaks about the presenting of the application. Section 6 speaks about the procedure to be adopted.

7.Section 4-A of Tamil Nadu Act 54 of 1981 lays down certain conditions which reads as follows:

“4-A Conditions subject to which licence may be granted. - Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or in any other law for the time being in force, no application for licence under Section 4 shall be entertained unless the following conditions are complied with by the applicant, namely:-

(a) the applicant shall give an undertaking in writing to the authority or officer referred to in section 5 that the enclosed place or building shall not be used for the purpose of displaying any indecent or obscene play or dance or other like performance or for the activities such as ring-throwing, arrow or pin-throwing or any other
