2. The case of the prosecution is that when the respondent police was in patrolling duty, the petitioners herein have illegally transported 50 kgs of river sand by using their Two wheelers. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are an innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and their names have been falsely implicated in this case and he prays for granting anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police would submit that the A1 and A2 are not having any pervious case and the 3rd petitioner is having one previous case in similar nature and the property has also been recovered. He would further submit that investigation of the case is pending and hence, he strongly objected to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and that the property has been recovered, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners subject to the following conditions:

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt
