2.A batch of Criminal Original Petitions in Crl.O.P.(MD).No.4769 of 2022 and batch, are disposed of by this Court touching the matters involved in this issue. Section 107 Cr.P.C. reads under:

show cause why he should not be ordered to execute a bond with or without sureties for keeping the peace for such period, not exceeding one year, as the Magistrate thinks fit.

(2) Proceeding under this section may be taken before any Executive Magistrate when either the place where the breach of the peace or disturbance is apprehended is within his local jurisdiction or there is within such jurisdiction a person who is likely to commit a breach of the peace or disturb the public tranquillity or to do any wrongful act as aforesaid beyond such jurisdiction”

3.A more comprehensive discussion has been made by the Co-ordinate Bench of this Court in Crl.R.C.(MD).No.78 of 2020, in the case of Devi Vs. Executive Magistrate cum Deputy Commissioner of Police and another, touching upon the history of the evolution of the Section. And the persons who were facing the above said proceedings, which we are not very much concerned here. That case was entirely with regard to the vesting of executive powers with police officials. But, now it has been settled that the proceedings under Section 107 Cr.P.C. is a judicial proceedings. As observed in the the case of Syed Ibrahim and others

Vs. Deputy Commissioner of Police Law and Order cum Executive

Magistrate, Madurai City, the due process must be followed. So as stated above, notice must accompany a copy of the order made by the Executive Magistrate.

4. With this background let us see the present case. In this case, the summon was issued, on the basis of the informations given by the second respondent, apprehending breach of peace in that locality, to show cause as to why the petitioners should not be directed to execute a bond for keeping good behaviour for a period of one year for Rs.50,000/- with a direction to appear before the first respondent on a particular date. Except the above said contents, no other materials have been enclosed to satisfy the requirement of law.

5. As mentioned above, it does not satisfy the requirement of law. On that ground, this petition is liable to be allowed. But, however, liberty is granted to the first respondent to initiate fresh action, if sufficient information is received from the second respondent, if any necessity arises.
