2. The case of the prosecution is that due to civil dispute, the petitioner herein has attacked the defacto complainant and also abused him in filthy language. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and his name has been falsely implicated in this case and seeks anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that based on the confession of co-accused, the petitioner herein arrayed as accused and the injured was discharged from the hospital and the co-accused has also been released on bail. He would further submit that investigation of the case is pending and hence, strongly objected to granted bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and that the injured was discharged from the hospital and that the co-accused has already been released on bail, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:
