2. The case of the prosecution is that when the respondent police was in patrolling duty, the petitioner herein and other accused have illegally transported 3 units of river sand by using Lorry. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and his name has been falsely implicated in this case and he prays for granting anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police would submit that petitioner herein and other accused have illegally transported 3 units of river sand by using Lorry and the same was recovered and the petitioner herein is not having any previous case. He would further submit that investigation of the case is pending and hence, he strongly objected to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and that the property has been recovered, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Srirangam, Trichy District on
