and Minerals Act, 1957, in Crime No.218 of 2023, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that based on the secret information, the respondent police conducted a vehicle check up and at that time, the petitioner herein has illegally transported 1/4 unit of river sand by using Bullock Cart. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and his name has been falsely implicated in this case and he prays for granting anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police would submit that the property has been recovered and there is no previous case pending against the petitioner. He would further submit that investigation of the case is pending and hence, he strongly objected to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and that the property has been recovered and that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner subject to
