CRL OP(MD). No.20273 of 2023

No.190 of 2023, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous motive, the petitioner herein and other accused have restrained the defacto complainant and attacked him and caused injury. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and his name has been falsely implicated in this case and seeks anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that due to previous motive, the petitioner herein and other accused restrained he defacto complainant and attacked him and caused injury and now, the injured was discharged from the hospital. He would further submit that investigation of the case is pending and hence, strongly objected to granted bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and that the injured was discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory
