ORDER

The petitioner has invoked the jurisdiction of this Court under Article 226 of the Constitution of India for issuance of a writ of certiorarified mandamus calling for the records pertaining to the impugned proceedings issued by the first respondent in Na.Ka.No.A3/3145/2001, dated 31.01.2022 and quash the same and consequently, directing the second respondent to remove the Encumbrance entries dated 27.12.2022 in respect of the property in Survey No.46/1A to an extent of 1200 sq feet situated at Shed No.8, SIPCOT Industrial Estate Thelicahtanallur, Paramakudi, Ramanathapuram District registered in his office within the time stipulated by this Court.

2. The petitioner co-operative bank has filed the above writ petition stating that one Hari Vasudev had borrowed money from the Bank on 10.08.1998 for the purpose of developing his business and the said Hari Vasudev had availed a loan of Rs.4,00,000/- for the purpose of putting up an industrial shed. At the time of such borrowal, he had mortgaged the property in Survey No.46/1A to an extent of 1,200 sq. ft. situated at shed No.8. After availing the loan, he had failed to repay the amount. Hence, the petitioner has initiated the steps to the auction the

In the meantime, the said Hari Vasudev had also filed an insolvency petition in I.P.No.5 of 2004 before the Additional District Munsif Court, Ramanathapuram. He had shown the liability to the Bank for a sum of Rs.12,53,132/-. When the Bank had brought the same for sale in public auction on 23.03.2010, they were unable to sell the same as there were no bidders. The property and the documents are already retained by the Bank. While so, when they had examined the encumbrance certificate, they came to learn that there was a charge for Rs.60,113/- as the sales tax due. In the light of these entries, the petitioner was unable to sell the property and therefore, the above writ petition.

3. On 08.03.2023, this Court had directed the petitioner to give an undertaking affidavit stating that he would clear the sales tax due at the first instance and on such payment being made, the respondents 1 to 3 would have no objection to the endorsement in the encumbrance certificate being removed.

4. Today, when the matter was called, an undertaking affidavit has been filed, in which in paragraph No.6, it is stated as follows:-

6. I further submit that during the pendency of the writ petition, the first respondent had filed the counter affidavit wherein he is claiming his dues if the said dues cleared by the petitioner Bank, they have no objection to proceed with the sale of the property. In the said circumstances, I had filed the present undertaking affidavit that I hereby undertake that I will clear the dues of the first respondent payable by the third respondent immediately after the sale of the petition mentioned property. I further submit that the petitioner requesting the first respondent to clear the above said dues without penal interest.

5. In the view of the above undertaking, the second respondent shall therefore remove the endorsement in the encumbrance certificate relating to the sale tax due within a period of one week from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. Thereafter, the petitioner shall clear the sales tax due with interest. On the due being cleared, the second respondent shall register the sale deed subject to the petitioner showing proof that the sale tax due has been cleared. Accordingly, this writ
