ORDER

Heard both sides.

2. The learned counsel appearing for the third respondent submits that the petitioner is not entitled to the relief sought for because there is no plot available on ground. In my view, this objection very well be placed before the Thasildar / the first respondent himself. As and when the objection is placed, the first respondent has to consider the same and pass speaking order. I make it clear that I have not gone into the merits of the matter. It is for the first respondent to pass order one way or the other. The first respondent shall put the interested persons on notice before passing the final order.
