2.The case of the prosecution is that all the accused persons has conspired together, committed breach of trust, created forged documents and cheated the properties of the defacto complainant. Hence the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would contend that the petitioner is innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the petitioner is only introducer and all the transactions are only between the defcto complainant and A2 and A3. He would further submit that the petitioner is in custody from 04.11.2023, hence he seek bail.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent Police would submit that all the accused persons has conspired together, committed breach of trust, created forged documents and cheated the properties of the defacto complainant, hence, he strongly objected to grant bail to the petitioner.

5.Considering the nature of allegations made against the petitioner and also considering the period of incarceration and taking note of the fact that the petitioner is only introducer and all the transactions are only between the defcto complainant and A2 and A3 and also taking into consideration of the principle stated by the Honourable Supreme Court in Sanjay Chandra and others vs. CBI reported in (2012)1 SCC 40 and the nature of the offence alleged by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.
