2.The case of the prosecution is that there was previous enmity between the accused and the defacto complainant with regard to the temple festival. Due to the same, the petitioner and other accused abused the defacto complainant's brother in filthy language and also attacked him. Hence the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would contend that the petitioner is innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the petitioner is in custody from 16.10.2023, hence he seeks bail.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent Police would submit that there was dispute between the two groups with regard to the temple festival. He would further submit that the investigation in this case is still pending.

5.Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6.Considering the facts and circumstances and also taking into consideration the period of incarceration and taking into consideration of the principle stated by the Honourable Supreme Court in Sanjay Chandra and others vs. CBI reported in (2012)1 SCC 40, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioners, subject to the following conditions:
