2.The case of the prosecution is that on search the respondent police found the petitioner growing two ganja plants weighing 450grams and 600 grams in his house. Hence the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would contend that the petitioner is innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the petitioner and is in custody from 12.10.2023, hence he seeks bail.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent Police would submit that on search the respondent police found the petitioner growing two ganja plants weighing 450grams and 600 grams in his house, hence he objected to grant bail to the petitioner. However he fairly concedes no previous case is pending against the petitioner.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances and also considering the fact that no previous case is pending against the petitioner and also considering the period of incarceration and also taking into consideration the quantity of contraband involved and taking into consideration of the principle stated by the Honourable Supreme Court in Sanjay Chandra and others vs. CBI reported in (2012)1 SCC 40, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:
