2. I have heard the learned counsel appearing for the revision petitioner. Since the revision petition is filed for early disposal of the case, the issuance of notice to the respondent is not necessary.

3. The revision petitioner has filed the eviction petition in R.L.T.O.P.No.18 of 2022 to vacate the respondent from the petition mentioned premises and hand over the vacant possession of the property.

4. The learned counsel appearing for the revision petitioner would submit that the above petition is still in the stage of counter, that the respondent has no intention to conduct the litigation expeditiously, that the revision petitioner is a senior citizen and that therefore, the trial has to be expedited.

5. The fact remains that the eviction petition was filed only in the year 2022. The High Court has already issued circulars to the District Judiciary, directing the Courts to give priority for the cases relating to Senior Citizens, HIV affected persons, Defence Personnel, Women and Children, more than 5 year old cases etc., It is to be noted that the revision petitioner, without approaching the trial Court, has directly come forward with the present Revision Petition before this Court, seeking early disposal. In the absence of total pendency particulars and the work burden of that particular Court, this Court is not inclined to give any direction to dispose of the case within a specified period of time. Generally, the trial Court is required to give priority to the cases, as per the circulars of this Court.

6. As rightly pointed out by the learned counsel appearing for the revision petitioner, the revision petitioner is a senior citizen. In view of the above, the revision petitioner is at liberty to approach the trial Court and if such requisition for speedy disposal is made, the trial Court is required to consider the urgency for early trial, in the light of the circulars issued by this Court and on the ground of senior citizenship.

7. With the above observation and direction, the Civil Revision Petition is disposed of. No costs.
