2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner herein and other accused were unlawfully entered into the house of the defacto complainant and demanded partition and also attacked her with Aruval and picked the Thali Chain from her. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and his name has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the petitioner's name is not found in FIR and seeks bail.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent police would submit that the victim was assaulted by one Senthilkumar along with two persons. Based on the confession of said Senthilkumar, the petitioner herein was arrayed as accused and the victim is not discharged from the hospital and the petitioner has to be identified through the victim. He would further submit that the investigation of the case is pending and hence, he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the serious nature of allegations made against the petitioner, this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.
