2. The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant's version is that when she was studying MCA in Sasthra University, she was in love with the accused. Later their family also become friends. A promise was also made by the parents of the accused for performing the marriage. On 05.11.2022 at about 11 a.m., when she was alone in the house, she was subjected to sexual intercourse by the accused and that was also continued for some time, whenever occasion arose. After the marriage of the brothers, the accused started to avoid her. When that was enquired, no proper reply was given. He also requested to marry her. The cellphone of the accused was also later switched off. On the above said allegation, she filed the present complaint.

3. Learned additional Public Prosecutor submitted that after registration of FIR, the petitioner has married the victim girl on 10.11.2023.

4. In view of the development, this Court is inclined to grant relief to the petitioner.

5. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Thanjavur, on condition that the petitioners shall
