Court, Tiruchendur, Tuticorin District, within a specified time fixed by this

2. I have heard the learned counsel appearing for the revision petitioner. Since the revision petition is filed for early disposal of the case, the issuance of notice to the respondents is not necessary.

3. The first respondent as plaintiff has filed the above suit in O.S.No.211 of 2020 for partition against the revision petitioner/first defendant and the respondents 2 to 6/defendants 2 to 6.

4. The learned counsel appearing for the revision petitioner would submit that the plaintiff has filed the above suit with intention to grab the property from the defendants, that the revision petitioner is a senior citizen and that therefore, the trial has to be expedited.

5. The fact remains that the suit was filed in the year 2020. The High Court has already issued circulars to the District Judiciary, directing the Courts to give priority for the cases relating to Senior Citizens, HIV affected persons, Defence Personnel, Women and Children, more than 5 year old cases etc., It is to be noted that the revision petitioner, without approaching the trial Court, has directly come forward with the present Revision Petition before this Court, seeking early disposal. In the absence of total pendency particulars and the work burden of that particular Court, this Court is not inclined to give any direction to dispose of the case within a specified period of time. Generally, the trial Court is required to give priority to the cases, as per the circulars of this Court.

6. As rightly pointed out by the learned counsel appearing for the revision petitioner, the revision petitioner is a senior citizen. In view of the above, the revision petitioner is at liberty to approach the trial Court and if such requisition for speedy disposal is made, the trial Court is required to consider the urgency for early trial, in the light of the circulars issued by this Court and on the ground of senior citizenship.

7. With the above observation and direction, the Civil Revision Petition is disposed of. No costs.
