seeks bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and other accused persons were involved in illegal sand mining of three units of river sand by using a tipper lorry. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would contend that the petitioner is innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the petitioner is in custody from 05.12.2023, hence he seeks bail.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the petitioner and other accused persons were involved in illegal sand mining of three units of river sand by using a tipper lorry, hence, he strongly objected to grant bail to the petitioner.

5.Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.
