CRL OP(MD). No.22499 of 2023

in Crime No. Not known of 2023, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the husband of the petitioner introduced one Vasanthkamal to the husband of the defacto complainant and insisted him to invest amount in share Trading and investment in a company viz., T-20 Fund running by said Vasanth Kamal and subsequently, cheated him. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent and she has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and her name has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that both the petitioner and her husband are living separately for a long period and seeks anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that the enquiry is pending in CSR Stage.

5. On perusal of the FIR, it is noticed that it is a case of money dispute and it is also submitted by the learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) that both the petitioner and her husband are living separately.

6. Taking into consideration the principles stated by the Honourable Supreme Court in Gurubaksh Singh Sibbia Etc., vs. State of Punjab reported in 1980 AIR 1632 and Lal Kamlendra Pratap Singh vs. State of Uttar Pradesh and others reported in (2009)4 SCC 437 and Joginder Kumar vs. State of U.P. and others reported in (1994)4 SCC 260, this Court is of the considered view that the alleged offence against the petitioner is not a case of heinous crime. Further, the petitioner is having permanent resident at Dindigul District and the origin of the crime is money transaction. In this circumstances, the principles stated in Hussainara Khatoon & Ors vs. Home Secretary, State Of Bihar reported in AIR 1979 SC 1360 is taken into consideration. In that case, the Hon'ble Supreme Court has cautioned that pre-trial detention is not to be encouraged nor is to be encourageable pre-trial release on sureties; that if the Court is satisfied after taking into consideration that the accused has his roots in the community and is not likely to abscond, he can safely be released on his personal bond.

7. In view of the above, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No. II, Trichy, on condition that the petitioner shall execute own bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand
