2.The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant purchased a land in S.F.No.229/16 in Arasiyarpatti Village, Virudhunagar District through a registered sale deed vide Doc.No.733/20002. The first accused has taken away the above said document from the custody of the uncle of the defacto complainant and obtained death certificate for the defacto complainant and his wife. Further the first accused manipulated forged documents of legal heir certificate to the above said couple and projected the petitioner as legal heir. Further with the help of other accused has executed registered sale deed through Doc. No.3356/2022 in favour of one Kumar by giving false information and produced forged documents and thereby the case came to be registered.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and a false case has been foisted against him. Hence he seeks anticipatory to the petitioner.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent submitted that the first accused has taken away the above document from the custody of the uncle of the defacto complainant and obtained death certificate for the defacto complainant and his wife. Further the first accused manipulated forged documents of legal heir certificate to the above said couple and projected the petitioner as legal heir. Further with the help of other accused has executed registered sale deed through Doc. No.3356/2022 in favour of one Kumar by giving false information and produced forged documents , hence he objected to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. It is seen that this petitioner herein has stood as son of the defacto complainant and his wife who were dead by creating fake document, hence custodial interrogation of the petitioner is very much required in this case, hence this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Hence the petition stands dismissed.
