The petitioner/accused who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent Police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 342, 324, 302 of I.P.C., in Crime No.266 of 2023 on the file of the respondent Police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that due to previous motive between the defacto complainant's son and the accused persons, on the date of occurrence, the accused persons unlawfully assembled and caught hold the deceased and attacked with knife, thereby he sustained fatal injury. When one Mathiyalagan in that place trying to prevent the same, he also sustained injury. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent person and he was falsely implicated in this case and he never committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the earlier applications filed by the petitioner, seeking anticipatory bail, were dismissed by this Court, considering the grievous nature of the offences.

5.It appears that no steps have been taken by the respondent to arrest the petitioner. For what reason no arrest has been made is not explained by the respondent. The only ground is that in the place of occurrence CCTV footage is available. But no steps have been taken to recover the footage. It is completely within the jurisdiction of the Investigating Officer.
