2.The case of the prosecution is that the respondent police found the accused in possession of deadly weapons and threatening the public with dire consequences. Hence the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would contend that the petitioner is innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the petitioner is in custody from 12.12.2023, hence he seeks bail.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the respondent police found the accused in possession of deadly weapons and threatening the public with dire consequences, hence he objected to grant bail to the petitioner. However he fairly concedes that no previous case is
