For Anticipatory Bail in Crime No.411/2023 on the file of the respondent police

ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioners/ A1 to A7, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 294(b), 323, 506(ii) IPC and Section 3 of TNPPDL Act, 1992, in Crime No.411 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that due to dispute regarding administration of temple the petitioners herein abused the defacto complainant, assaulted the defacto complainant and also criminally intimidated. Further he also caused damage to the CCTV camera and cycle kept in the temple premises, hence the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent and a false case has been foisted against them, hence he seek anticipatory bail.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioners herein abused the defacto complainant, assaulted the defacto complainant and also criminally intimidated. Further he also caused damage to the CCTV camera and cycle kept in the temple premises hence he objected to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5.It is reported that the injured was discharged from the hospital and no previous case is pending against the petitioners. Taking into consideration the principles stated by the Honourable Supreme Court in Gurubaksh Singh Sibbia Etc., vs. State of Punjab reported in 1980 AIR 1632 and Lal Kamlendra Pratap Singh vs. State of Uttar Pradesh and others reported in (2009)4 SCC 437 and Joginder Kumar vs. State of U.P. and others reported in (1994)4 SCC 260 and taking into consideration the origines of crime, it is seen that the offence alleged as against the petitioners is not a case of heinous crime. Further the petitioners are having permanent residents at Dindigul District. Hence the principles stated in Hussainara Khatoon & Ors vs. Home Secretary, State Of Bihar reported in AIR 1979 SC 1360 is taken into consideration. In that case, the Hon'ble Supreme Court has cautioned that pre-trial detention is not to be encouraged nor is to be encourageable pre-trial release on sureties; that if the Court is satisfied after taking into consideration that the accused has his roots in the community and is not likely to abscond, they can safely be released on their personal bond.

6.In view of the above, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Vedasanthur, Dindigul District on condition that the petitioners shall execute own bonds for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that :

[a] the petitioners shall affix his photograph and Left Thumb Impression in the bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank Pass Book to ensure their identity.

[b] the petitioners shall report before the trial Court on receipt of summons

[c] the petitioners shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[d] the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.
