The learned counsel appearing for the appellant would submit that both the respondents passed away and he has also filed an application to condone the delay of 31 days in filing the petition to set aside the abatement. The said application was allowed on payment of cost of Rs.1,000/-. But the said amount has not been paid. Therefore, the condone delay petition is dismissed along with the connected petitions.

2. In view of the above, the Second Appeal is dismissed as abated. No costs.
