2. The learned counsel appearing for the respondent would submit that the suit was filed by the respondent / plaintiff for recovery of possession and the appellant / defendant himself has handed over the possession to the respondent / plaintiff. Therefore, he would submit that since the issue has been amicably settled between the parties, nothing survives for further adjudication in this matter.

3. Recording the submissions of the learned counsel appearing for the respondent and taking note of the statement of the learned counsel for the appellant that he has not received any instructions from the appellant, this Second Appeal is dismissed as no further orders are required. No costs.
