This appeal has been filed against the order passed by MACT on 22.02.2018. On the said day, the case was fixed for producing evidence by the parties; however, on request made by both the parties, the matter was taken up in the Daily Lok Adalat. The parties settled the dispute and their statements were recorded. It is on record that the statements of the counsels, who represented both the parties, were also recorded.

As per the provisions of Section 22 (2) of The Legal Services Act, 1987 and also as per the provisions of Section 96 of The Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, (Act 5 of 1908), an appeal does not lie. Faced with this situation, counsel for the appellant very fairly stated that let he be allowed to withdraw the appeal with liberty to file a review application as per law before the Court below.

In view of the statement made by learned counsel for the appellant, this appeal stands disposed of.
