IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA
AT CHANDIGARH

CRM-M-1998-2023
Reserved on:28.02.2023
Pronounced on: 29.03.2023

Pinki ...Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab ...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ANOOP CHITKARA

Present: Mr. Mohit Kumar, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Virat Rana, AAG, Punjab.

ANOOP CHITKARA, J.

FIR No.	Dated	Police Station	Sections
237	01.06.2022	City Barnala, District Barnala	21, 22 & 25 of NDPS Act

1. The petitioner, incarcerated upon his arrest in the FIR captioned above, came up before this Court under Section 439 of Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (CrPC) seeking bail.
2. In paragraph No.17 of the bail petition, the petitioner declares that no case is pending against her. However, it is further clarified that the State would be in best position to give particulars regarding criminal history against the petitioner.
3. The above statement that the State would give better particulars, is absolutely not acceptable because it is for the petitioner’s counsel to know about criminal history of the petitioner. Further as per para 9 of the reply filed by the concerned Deputy Superintendent of Police, the petitioner has the criminal history which she has concealed from the Court, which is as under:-

Sr. No.	FIR No.	Dated	Police Station	Sections
1	117	13.08.2019	City-I, Sangrur	22 of NDPS Act

CRM-M-1998-2023

4. Given the fact that the case which is pending against the petitioner is under Section 22 of NDPS Act, the present petition is dismissed for not declaring the proper particulars. Liberty reserved to file a fresh petition after annexing the copy of the bail order in the above said FIR. Pending applications, if any, stand disposed of.
