Versus

Guru Nanak Dev University and others

.....Respondents

CORAM : HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE VIKAS BAHL

Present:- Mr. K.P. Singh, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. M.K. Dogra, Advocate for the respondents.

VIKAS BAHL, J. (ORAL)

This writ petition has been filed under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India for issuance of writ, order or direction especially in the nature of certiorari/mandamus/setting aside/quashing the action of respondents in rejecting the thesis of the petitioner in toto, with a further prayed to give another chance to revise the thesis as per the examiners' recommendations.

Learned counsel for the respondents have submitted that in the present case, it would be open to the petitioner to move an application before the review committee and in case any such application is filed before the review committee detailing his grievances, then, the same would be considered by the review committee within a period of six weeks from the date of filing of the said application.

Learned counsel for the petitioner in view of the above seeks to withdraw the present writ petition with liberty to avail the above-said remedy.

In view of the above, the present writ petition is dismissed as withdrawn, with liberty to the petitioner to file an application before the review committee and in case of him doing so, the review committee is directed to consider and decide the same within a period of six weeks from the date of receipt of copy of application.

It is made clear that this Court has not opined on the merits of the case and the review committee would consider and decide the same independently, in accordance with law.
