ANIL KSHETARPAL, J (Oral)

1. During the pendency of the proceedings for preparation of the final decree in a partition suit, the court has permitted the parties to produce a fresh site plan. The correctness of the aforesaid order has been challenged in this revision petition.

2. Learned counsel representing the petitioner contends that after the preparation of the preliminary decree for partition, fresh site plan cannot be produced.

3. This Court has considered the submissions made by the learned counsel representing the parties. In the preliminary decree for partition, the court determines the respective shares of the various co-sharers/co-owners. It is further provided that the division of the property is to be carried out by metes and bounds while preparing the final decree for partition. The aforesaid proceedings are pending. Only a site plan has been taken on record. Hence, no ground to interfere is made out.

4. Dismissed.
5. All the pending miscellaneous applications, if any, are also disposed of.
