Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the case of the petitioners is similar to the other similarly stated employees of the Government of Punjab (Annexure P-10). He further submitted that for the redressal of their grievances, the petitioners have issued a legal notice vide

Annexure P-11 dated 25.10.2022, but neither any reply has been received by the petitioners nor the same has been considered and decided by the competent authority. He also submitted that at this stage he will be satisfied in case the legal notice given by the petitioners is considered and decided by the concerned authorities in accordance with law and the time-bound direction be issued in this regard.

Ms. Ambika Bedi, AAG, Punjab, accepts notice on behalf of the respondents/State and has stated that she has no objection in case the aforesaid limited prayer of the petitioners is considered and a direction may be issued to the respondents to consider the legal notice of the petitioners and decide the same in accordance with law.

I have heard the learned counsel for the parties.

In view of the aforesaid factual position and without observing anything on the merits of the case, this Court is of the view that at this stage the present writ petition can be disposed of with a direction to the respondents to consider and decide the legal notice (Annexure P-11) given by the petitioners in accordance with law.
