

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA
AT CHANDIGARH

202 CWP-1588-2023
Date of Decision : July 26, 2023

RAJINDER SINGH AND ORS -Petitioners

V/S

STATE OF PUNJAB AND ORS -Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SURESHWAR THAKUR
HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE KULDEEP TIWARI

Present : Mr. Abdul Shehbaz Thind, Advocate for the petitioners.

Ms. Monika Jalota, Sr. DAG, Punjab.

SURESHWAR THAKUR, J.(ORAL)

1. Written statement on behalf of respondents No.1 and 2, as filed by the learned State counsel, is taken on record.
2. Since today the learned State counsel has apprised this Court, that only in pursuance to a binding, and, a conclusive verdict(s) of eviction being made by the statutory competent authority(ies) concerned, that the warrants of possession have been issued, as such, by the learned executing court concerned, thereupon the instant writ petition asking for stay of execution of the said issued warrants of possession, is a misconstituted endeavour.
3. Therefore, the instant writ petition, with the above asked for relief, is dismissed at this stage. However, in the larger interest of justice, it is open to the present petitioner/JD to, within the execution application, raise such permissible objections against the executability of the warrants of possession. On such objections being raised, the learned executing court concerned shall make a decision thereon, but positively within two weeks hereafter.
4. All pending application(s), if any, including the order of status quo are hereby vacated.
