HARSIMRAN SINGH SETHI J. (ORAL)

Learned counsel for the petitioner very fairly submits that keeping in view certain facts which came into existence including the fact that the main appeal, out of which present civil revision petition had arisen, has already been decided, the present civil revision petition may kindly be disposed of having been not pressed any further especially as the order passed in the appeal has already been challenged by filing RSA No.3988 of 2017.

Ordered accordingly.
