In an execution petition, the court has held that payment as per the money decree has already been made by the judgment debtor and therefore, the decree stands specified.

Learned counsel representing the petitioner admits that while passing the decree, the court ordered recovery of lump sum amount of Rs.2,11,582/-, which has been paid. Hence, no ground to interfere is made out.

Dismissed.

All the pending miscellaneous applications, if any, are also disposed of.
