Dr. Surya Parkash, Advocate
for respondent No.1(ii).

VIKRAM AGGARWAL, J. (ORAL)

1. No one has appeared on behalf of the petitioners.
2. Service to unserved respondents has still not been effected.
3. On the last date of hearing i.e., 17.04.2023, the following order was passed:-

“Even after expiry of five years of the filing of the civil revision, service upon the respondents is not complete, which shows the eagerness of the petitioners to get the present petition decided.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the one last opportunity be given to serve the unserved respondents, even if they are to be served through the lower court counsel, who are representing them.

Adjourned to 18.07.2023.

Let the unserved respondents be served by the next date of hearing. Additional liberty is given to the petitioners to serve the unserved respondents through the counsel representing them in the proceedings before the trial court, out of which, the present civil revision petition has been filed.”

4. As per the report of the Registry, no steps were taken for service of the unserved respondents.

5. A perusal of the record further shows that even on 21.02.2023, no one had appeared on behalf of the petitioners. Since no one has appeared on behalf of the petitioners today also and order dated 17.04.2023 has also not been complied with, it appears that the petitioners are not interested in pursuing the present petition.

Dismissed for non-prosecution.
