CM-15597-CII-2023 AND CM-15598-CII-2023

The present applications have been filed for preponement of the date of hearing of the main petition, which is fixed for 12.10.2023 and for disposal of the same, in view of the compromise, so reached between the parties.

Keeping in view the averments, made in the applications, same are allowed and the main case is taken up for hearing today itself.

Main case

The compromise is stated to have been effected between the parties and the written compromise deed dated 01.08.2023 is annexed as Annexure A/1, with the subsequent application i.e. CM-15598-CII-2023, so filed.

CM-15597-CII-2023 AND
CM-15598-CII-2023 IN/AND CR-8109-2018

Even, on the basis of the compromise deed (Annexure A/1), the statements before learned Lower Court have been recorded, copies whereof has been annexed with the said application.

In the said statements, parties concerned had stated about the genuineness of the compromise, so reached between them and had made a prayer for passing of the compromise decree, on the basis of said compromise.

It is submitted by learned counsel that solely on account of stay having been granted by this Court, in the present case, compromise decree is not being passed by learned Lower Court.

In view of the compromise, so placed on record at the behest of applicant/respondent, learned counsel for the petitioner states that, even though, he is not aware of the compliance of the compromise before the Lower Court, but in view of the statements of the parties, got recorded vide order dated 01.08.2023, the present revision petition be disposed of being compromised.

Ordered accordingly.

However, in the eventuality of the compromise not being fructified, before learned Lower Court, the affected party shall be at liberty to seek revival of the present revision petition.
