CM-7990-CII-2023

Present application has been filed for recalling the order dated 18.04.2023, by which, the present petition was dismissed for non-prosecution.

Notice of the application to the counsel opposite.

Mr. Sumeet Jain, Advocate appears and accepts notice on behalf of the respondents. He raises no objection for the grant of prayer as made in the present application.

Keeping in view the averments made in the application, which are duly supported by an affidavit, coupled with the fact that learned counsel for the respondents has not objected to the relief as prayed in the present application, the same is allowed. The order dated 18.04.2023 is recalled and the petition is restored to its original number and status.

On the joint request of learned counsel for the parties, the petition is taken up for hearing.

1. Learned counsel for the parties submits that the parties have settled their dispute orally, according to which, the respondents in order to finish the litigation, have agreed to pay a lump-sum amount of ₹2.25 lacs in favour of the petitioner within a period of seven days from today. Hence, keeping in view the said compromise between the parties, the present petition may kindly be disposed of having been not pressed any further with liberty to revive the same in case the compromise does not reach its conclusion.

2. Let learned counsel for the petitioner provide the account number in which the amount should be deposited as learned counsel for the respondents submits that they will remit the amount by way of RTGS.

3. As prayed for, petition is disposed of having been not pressed any further with liberty, as prayed for.
