RAJA SINGH

....Petitioner(s)

Versus

STATE OF HARYANA

...Respondent(s)

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE AMAN CHAUDHARY

Present : Mr. Satbir Singh Gill, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Tanuj Sharma, AAG Haryana.

AMAN CHAUDHARY. J.

The present petition under Section 438 Cr.P.C. has been filed seeking anticipatory bail to the petitioner in case FIR No.13 dated 12.01.2023, registered under Sections 15/61/85 of the NDPS Act at Police Station Kalanwali, District Sirsa.

As per allegations, while the police party was on patrolling, a person was found coming from opposite site of Canal Culvert, carrying a plastic white colour bag in his right hand. On seeing the police party, he turned around and started walking swiftly. The police officials got suspected and nabbed the said person, on which the said person told his name as Maadu Singh. Upon personal search, Poppy Husk weighing 2 kg was recovered from his plastic bag. Upon interrogation, he disclosed that he has obtained the said contraband from Raja Singh (petitioner herein).

Learned counsel would contend that the petitioner was not named in the FIR and he was nominated on basis of the disclosure statement of co-accused Maadu Singh, who was arrested at the spot, alongwith the alleged contraband. He submits that the disclosure statement of the co-accused is not admissible and thus, there is no evidence against the petitioner regarding his complicity in the present case. He places reliance on the judgment in the case of Tofan Singh vs. State of Tamil Nadu, 2020 AIR (Supreme Court) 5592 to contend that the disclosure statement is inadmissible in evidence. The petitioner is ready and willing to join the investigation and cooperate with the investigating agency. Thus, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to him.

Learned State counsel opposes the prayer on the ground that the co-accused, who had named the petitioner, had specifically stated that the contraband recovered from her belongs to the petitioner. Custodial interrogation of the petitioner is necessary as to complete the chain of supply and also to ascertain the persons who are involved in the trade of drugs. In case the petitioner is granted the concession of anticipatory bail then prejudice would be caused to the case of the prosecution.

Heard.

It is apposite to make a reference to the order of Hon'ble The Supreme Court of India in the case of Prabhulal vs. Central Bureau of Narcotics, wherein the SLP (Crl.) 6722-2022 was dismissed vide order dated 14.12.2022, affirming the order of dismissal of anticipatory bail by Madhya Pradesh High Court, by observing thus:-

“We have heard learned counsel for the parties. We find no reason to grant pre-arrest bail to the petitioner as prayed for. The Special Leave Petition is, accordingly, dismissed.

The interim protection granted by order dated 11.10.2022 stands vacated in view of the dismissal of the special leave petition.

However, if the petitioner surrenders and apply for regular bail, the same may be considered by the Trial Court as expeditiously as possible on its own merits in accordance with law.”

Furthermore in the case of State of Haryana vs. Samarth Kumar, 2022 LiveLaw (SC) 622, Hon’ble The Supreme Court of India has held thus:-

“7. The order of the Special Court granting regular bail to the respondents shows that the said order was passed in pursuance of the anticipatory bail granted by the High Court. Therefore, the same cannot be a ground to hold that the present appeals have become infructuous.

8. In cases of this nature, the respondents may be able to take advantage of the decision in Tofan Singh vs. State of Tamil Nadu (supra), perhaps at the time of arguing the regular bail application or at the time of final hearing after conclusion of the trial.

9. To grant anticipatory bail in a case of this nature is not really warranted. Therefore, we are of the view that the High Court fell into error in granting anticipatory bail to the respondents.

10. In view of the above, the appeals are allowed. The impugned orders are set aside. As a consequence, the Appellate –State is entitled to take steps, in accordance with law.”

Hon'ble The Supreme Court of India in plethora of judicial precedents has reiterated that while considering the anticipatory bail, the Court is to take into consideration the factors like gravity of offence, chances of accused tampering with the evidence and probabilities of fleeing from justice.

In the case in hand, the name of the petitioner has surfaced based on the disclosure statement of co-accused, Maadu Singh, who was apprehended at the spot and recovery of the contraband was effected from him. He had categorically disclosed that the recovered contraband was obtained from the petitioner. The sole ground taken by the petitioner for grant of anticipatory bail in view of the judgment in the case of Tofan Singh (supra) that the disclosure statement of co-accused is inadmissible, has no force, in view of the decisions of Hon'ble The Supreme Court of India in the cases of Prabhulal and Samarth Kumar (supra). Thus, the allegations against the petitioner call for a deeper probe, to unearth the modus operandi, source of origin, chain of supply and also to find out the involvement of other persons therein, so as to also eradicate the menace of drug proliferating, for which the custodial interrogation of the petitioner is required. The grant of pre-arrest bail in the present case shall be detrimental to the investigation.

The stringent provisions as contained in the statute, are to deal with the drug menace, plaguing the society, as the youth are being led on a path having deleterious effects, thereby destroying the very social fabric.

Keeping in view the aforesaid, this Court is not inclined to grant the concession of anticipatory bail to the petitioner. As a sequel thereto, the present petition being bereft of merit, is hereby dismissed.
